

Padstow May Song UOGB arrangement

Ukulele

A D E A D E D E A E D E

U-nite and u-nite, let us all u-nite for sum-mer is a come un-to-day and whi-ther we are

5 A E A A A D E Bm A E A E

go - ing We shall all u - nite in the mer-ry morn-ing of May. The young men of Pad-stow they might if they would for sum-mer is a-come-un-to-

9 A D E A D E D E A

12 E D E A E A A D E Bm A E

day, they might have built a ship and gild-ed it with gold in the mer-ry morn ing of

16 A E A D E A D E D E A

May. The young wom-en of Pad-stow they might if they would for sum-mer is a-come-un-to day, they might have built a gar - land with the white rose and the red in the mer - ry morn - ing of May.

20 E D E A E A

22 A D E Bm A E A

Ukulele

2

25

E A Bm D

Oh where is saint George oh where is he oh, he's out on his long boat all

32

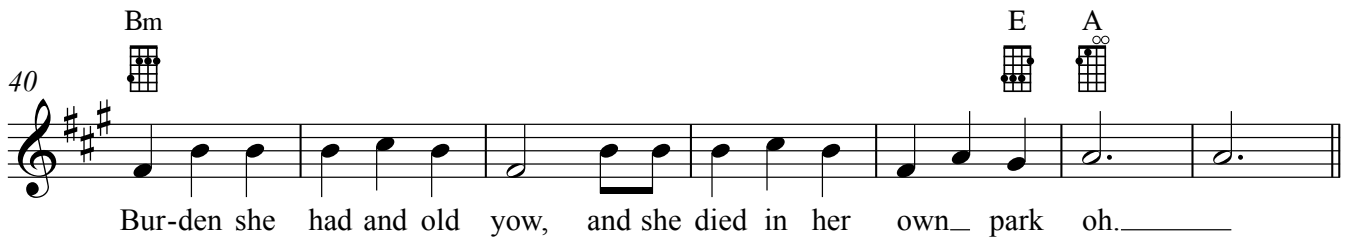

Bm E A Bm D

out in the salt_ sea oh. Up flies the kite down falls the lark oh, and Ur-su-la

40

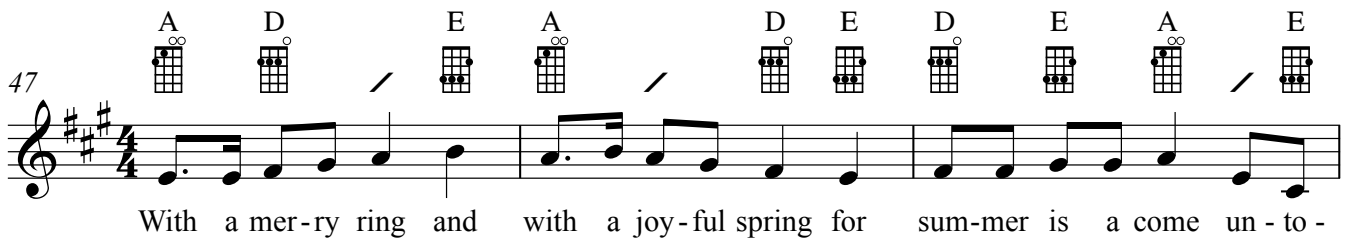

Bm E A

Bur-den she had and old yow, and she died in her own_ park oh._____

47

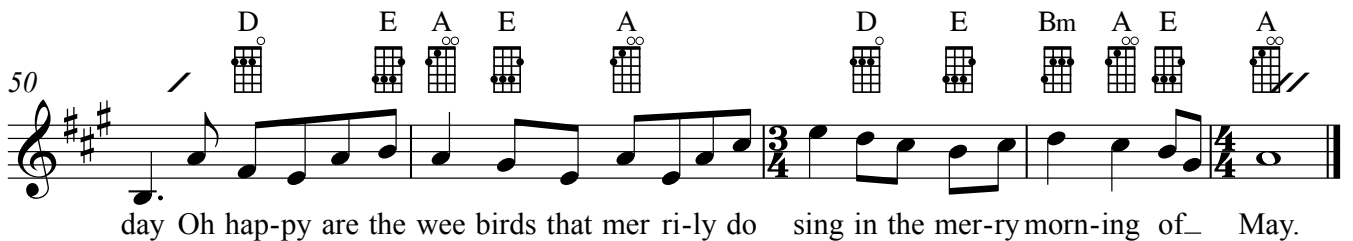

A D E A D E D E A E

With a mer-ry ring and with a joy-ful spring for sum-mer is a come un-to - day Oh hap-py are the wee birds that mer ri-ly do sing in the mer-ry morn-ing of_ May.

50

D E A E A D E Bm A E A